

Deborah Hunt

Deborah Hunt of Georgetown was elected Chair of the TCDRS Board of Trustees in 2025 and served as the Vice Chair since 2020. She is the former Williamson County Tax Assessor/Collector and is now retired. Prior to these positions, Hunt served as a justice of the peace and magistrate for Williamson County. Hunt is a former member of the Tax Assessor/Collectors Association of Texas, International and Texas Associations of Assessing Officers, Texas Association of Appraisal Districts, Williamson County Investment Committee and the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles Registration and Titling Advisory Committee. Additionally, she is the former chair of the Williamson Central Appraisal District Board of Directors and a former member of the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts Property Tax Advisory Committee and the North Austin Woman's Club. Hunt has served on the board since being appointed by former Gov. Rick Perry in 2013 and was recently reappointed by Gov. Greg Abbott in 2022. Hunt attended Trenton State College, now the College of New Jersey.