

Life changes.

Review your account information.

www.TCDRS.org

With TCDRS you get a retirement benefit you can count on. Be sure to update your account information after big life changes to ensure we have your most current information on file.

Review your account information if you...

- Get married

Check your beneficiaries and address, and let us know if you change your name.

- Start a family

If you've recently added a new member to your family, it's also a good time to update your beneficiaries.

- Move

Be sure to tell us where you've moved. Sign into your online account at www.TCDRS.org to update your address.

- Change careers

You can keep your TCDRS account open even if you leave your job, and your money will continue earning interest. Be sure to keep your contact information up-to-date so that we may contact you regarding your account.

- Get deployed for military duty

Let us know if you have a change of address and learn more about your rights while you're on active duty at www.TCDRS.org.

- Get divorced

Update your beneficiaries, and let us know if you've changed your name or moved. Call us to find out how divorce might affect your benefit.

- Lose a loved one

If your beneficiary passes away, take a moment to update your beneficiary for your TCDRS account.

Sign into your account at www.TCDRS.org to quickly update your beneficiary and address online. For questions, call Member Services at 800-823-7782.
